Greetings

Welcome to all those attending our services. We also extend warm wishes to everyone who is part of our readership.

Mazel Tov

Mazel Tov to The Tuesday Night Men's Shiur (in its 23rd year) on finishing on its most recent Siyyum on Chelek. The Shiur is now learning in depth Sefer Tehillim. This Shiur takes place weekly on Tuesday nights at EDOS with Rabbi Joel Unger. We highly recommend attending this Shiur, in what promises to be a very rewarding & exciting learning opportunity weekly. For further information about the Shiur, please speak to Dr. Ivan Geller or Dr. Yitzchak Teitelbaum.

Condolences

We are sad to report the passing of Jane Teitz, in Jerusalem. Jane and Dr. Eric Teitz, z"l, were long time members and attendees at EDOS before they made Aliyah. Our condolences to her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. May her memory be for a blessing.

Kiddush Enhancement

We are excited to announce that starting this Shabbat and then going forward once a month, the Shul will be hosting an enhanced Kiddush. Each month we will serve different foods. In general we will try to have the Kiddush every Shabbat Mevorchim, however sometimes that may change based on sponsored kiddushim or other special events or like this Shabbat, which is Rosh Chodesh. We will do our best to communicate when the special Kiddush is a few weeks in advance. With such endeavors, we kindly ask the membership to consider making a donation which will help with the costs. The more donations that come in, the more enhanced the kiddushim can be and moreover the more often we can host kiddushim. If you are interested in being a sponsor, please let us know.

Please join this Shabbat for cholent, kishka, candy platters, and some desserts from The Braided Loaf. We look forward to seeing everyone!

Thank you to Mike Wolfe for suggesting and helping get the idea of the ground.
