The East Denver Eruv has served our community for many years. It has helped grow our community, and has enhanced our Oneg Shabbat weekly. The Eruv is supported entirely by donations. Every donation, regardless of size, is greatly appreciated. Please check the list of supporters on the bulletin board by the entrance to the Shul. If your name is not on the list, we ask that you consider a contribution this year to the Eruv. Questions? See Jay Moskowitz.

Chesed Teamwork—The EDOS Chesed team strives to make EDOS a welcoming place, ensuring that visitors are greeted properly, and arranging Shabbat hospitality for these guests. We encourage you to be part of this important initiative! Whether we know in advance that an out-of-town visitor would appreciate an invitation, or we only find out at Shul on Shabbat, we'd like members to let us know when they can share their Shabbat table and delicious food with others. Please speak to Michelle Teitelbaum or any board member for more information.

Dov Mogyoros-Tova Laufer Wedding

Dov's Aufruf

July 27, 2013

Today, we celebrate the Aufruf of Dov Mogyoros, son of Aniko and Dr. Miguel Mogyoros, long time members of our Shul and great-grandson of our devoted member Mrs. Aranka Jonap, to Tova Laufer, daughter of Miriam and Michael Laufer of New York City

The kallah attends Columbia University in New York where she is working on her degree in physical therapy. The chatan, named for his maternal grandfather, Mr. Bela Jonap, z"l, is an attorney with a national firm in Philadelphia. Dov also has a MBA from the Wharton School.

The chatan is the youngest of the four Mogyoros boys, and Tova has three younger siblings.

The couple will be married at the Lincoln Square Synagogue in New York City on August 6th.

One might ask, why have the Aufruf today, rather than next Shabbat when the wedding is still ten days away?

And one could answer--because, next Shabbat, in Philadelphia, is the Bar Mitzvah of the first Mogyoros grandson, to wit: William, son of Monique (Fish) Mogyoros and Robby, our favorite oral surgeon.

Robby has also copied his father in that both he and Miguel have four sons. In this connection, it is interesting to note that Miguel's seat mate, for so many years, is Dr. Alex Jacobs, who also is blessed with four sons. And we take cognizance of the fact that the Laufers have four daughters.

It is a pleasure to greet the Kallah, her parents, Miriam and Michael, Becky and Jacob, Tova's sister and brother; and, of course, all of the Mogyoros boys.

So we have a double Mazel Tov, first, for next Shabbat, to William, his parents, grandparents Fish and Mogyoros, and in ten days, to the chatan, Dov, and his kallah, Tova, and grandparents Laufer and Mogyoros and especially to great-grandmother, Mrs. Jonap and to all of the siblings, nephews, nieces, uncles, aunts and the gantze mishpoche.

And may these two Simchas receive a Bracha from Hashem for happiness, good health and hatzlacha rabba.

Jack Greenwald
