Welcome

We extend a warm welcome to everyone who is davening with us today.

Thank You

Thank you to those providing Divrei Torah this week! These include Alan Schreiber, Friday night; Rabbi Akiva Stern, Shabbat morning; and Dr. Yitzchak Teitelbaum, Seudah Shlishit.

Thank you to all those who helped put together our successful eclipse watching trip! This includes our volunteer drivers, those who made arrangements for, picked up, and dropped off the vans, those who prepared food and water, and all the participants who made it possible! Pictures are already appearing on our web site.

Mazel Tov

Mazel Tov to Raacheli and Shlomo Fried upon the birth of Ahuva Machla. Mazel Tov to proud grandparents Agi and Yossi Fried, and Roz and Rabbi Abraham Cooper. Mazel Tov to the extended families.

From The Rabbi's Desk

This week's פרשה begins with the words שפטים ושטרות, תתן לך בך-לשפטיך - Judges and officers should be appointed by you in all of your gates. The wording of this verse is difficult. The literal translation of the words תתן לך is you should give to yourself (singular) rather than the expected תתנו לכם - you (plural) shall appoint upon yourselves.

Send bulletin announcements to newsletter@edosdenver.org by Wednesday.
Oral announcements are due to the President (president@edosdenver.org) by Thursday afternoon

Rav Moshe Feinstein suggests that the Torah is alluding to a different type of judgement. Each individual goes through life judging for themselves what is right and wrong. The Torah is telling each individual that when you make this judgement for yourself, לא תקח שוחד do not accept a bribe to convince yourself that one action is correct because it is easier or more comfortable. Rather, צדק צדק תרדוף, strive for justice and to do what is right, whether or not it conforms to what you want to do.

We tend to read פרשת שופטים near the onset of the month of אלול, the beginning of the ימי הדין when Hashem is going to judge us all individually and as a nation. Our best hope to be found righteous in our judgement is to be honest judges of ourselves. If we take the time to consider our actions with the intention of determining what is truly right and proper, we will certainly be judged in the most positive way.

Kiddush

The Kiddush today is sponsored by the EDOS Women's Auxiliary and EDOS Kiddush Fund.

Community Events

Keshet Dinner—September 13th, 6 PM, BMH-BJ is the 14th Annual Keshet of the Rockies Dinner. The honoree is Elise Zakroff, a devoted and valued member of the Keshet community for many years. Students of the Year are Aviva Kupfer and Arik Hazak (DAT), Rachel Kornbluth (DJDS), and Baruch Simblist (Hillel Academy). The Keynote Speaker is Tricia Downing. A lifelong athlete, Tricia went from being a competitive cyclist to a paraplegic requiring a wheelchair for mobility. Via her experiences in both rehab and racing, she has overcome adversity and learned to perform at the top of her game. For virtual ads and reservations, call or email Lola Zussman, 303-961-4186, lolashe@aol.com.

Mega Kids Challah Bake—Sunday September 17th, 10-noon. Kids ages 3-12 (must be accompanied by an adult) at George Washington High School. Info/ RSVP, 303-329-0213 or www.coloradokidschallah.com. A community event sponsored by Bais Menachem.

Shabbat Shiur
